INDEPENDENCE, Ky. -- A Good Samaritan jumped into action early Wednesday morning after a car crashed into a pond in northern Kentucky.

The accident happened around 12:30 a.m. on the 900 block of Mount Zion Road.

Kenton County police say Bradley Olsen, 25, lost control of his vehicle and crashed into a pond causing the vehicle to become fully submerged.

A passerby noticed the car in the pond and helped rescue Olsen and his passenger David Sinowetski.

Sinowetski, 27, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital in Edgewood with minor injuries.

Olsen refused medical treatment and was arrested and charged with OVI.

The accident remains under investigation.
